SOUTHERN PACIFIC NOW SURVEYING LOCATION FOR PROPOSED SPUR

Hansen Lumber Company To Benefit By New Project

The Southern Pacific Railroad Company is having their property at the west end of Niles surveyed to find out what the cost of a spur track would be. As yet no plans have been perfected or decided upon, and if the track is laid at all it will not be for some time.

The Hansen Lumber Company is contemplating the construction of new headquarters for their lumber yard in Niles. Over a year ago the company purchased the property on Main street from the subway east to the building occupied by the Boy Scouts. This property abutts on the Southern Pacific right-of-way. At the time of purchase the Hansen Company had this project in view. If this plan is carried out the spur track will run along the boundary of the lumber yard. This would be advantageous for the work of loading and unloading could be carried on more speedily, with less handling. While the Township Register has no authentic information concerning this project, the assumption is that the surveying now being done will lead to contemplated expansion of the Hansen interests in Niles, sometime in the spring.

BOY SCOUTS TO EXHIBIT APRICOT CULTURE SOON

NILES TROOP of Boy Scouts are preparing a most interesting exhibit, which is to be entered in the annual merit badge competition in the civic auditorium in the near future. This exhibit, which is most decidedly different, will deal with every phase of apricot culture, from planting the tree, to drying and preserving the fruit.

After the competition in Oakland the boys are preparing to place their exhibit in the local clubhouse, where the public will be welcome to examine it at leisure. The Niles Chamber of Commerce have approved of this plan, and they expect to use the exhibit in local promotion work.

According to J. E. Townsend, member of the local troop committee, more than 100 of the 109 troops in Alameda County are expected to be present at the Oakland competition.

NORMAN PARKS MEETS DEER IN CANYON

Norman H. Parks, editor and publisher of The Register, narrowly missed hitting a doe Tuesday evening while driving his car through the Niles canyon. The deer remained in the road, and Mr. Parks was forced to bring his car to a halt before the animal moved. There were other deer in the vicinity, and Mr. Parks saw one at the side of the road which appeared to be a buck. The pair scampered off in the underbrush as Mr. Parks resumed his trip.

REMOVAL OF TWO GRADES IS ORDERED

Pleasanton Township Gets $25,000 for Improvement In 1930

SUNOL TO BENEFIT

Niles Canyon Road Will Be Scene of Much Re-building

ELIMINATION of two grade crossings in Pleasanton Township at a cost of $25,000 and widening of highways to cost approximately $20,000 were among the projects planed for Alameda county during 1930, acording to plans made public this week by the county surveyor's office.

The work is to be done in the Niles Canyon district. Added to the $45,000 to be spent on the Pleasanton Township side of the canyon, will be improvements approximating $160,000 to be made in Washington Township. In all a total of nearly $205,000 will be spent in improving the Niles Canyon highway. This is a comparatively large sum considering the fact that the entire county is allotted only $1,500,000.

The exact location of the grade crossing eliminations grade separations, road widening and bridge replacement are as follows:

GIGANTIC SALE CONTINUES AT M. HADAD STORE

M. Hadad is having a gigantic sale, a continuance of his clearance sale, only he is offering a larger and better stock, which is offered to his patrons, he says, for sixty cents on the dollar. He also states that he has two buyers, one in San Francisco and one in the east, and these buyers purchase stock at greatly reduced prices, which in turn gives a wonderful buying advantage to those who patronize him.

The eastern buyer recently had the opportunity to purchase a stock of pumps and oxfords for $500.00, and these have been shipped for this great sale. He declared that the amount paid for this footwear was twenty-five percent below the market price.

Mr. Hadad is quoted as saying, "Let's get together this year and do business right, in a thoroughly business like manner, we will all save money."

The advertisement of this sale appears on page 5 of this issue of The Register.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

By NORMAN H. PARKS, Publisher Register

THE MOONEY CASE, PERPLEXING

PERHAPS it is little wonder that Governor Young hesitates to take action in the Mooney case. Many people attribute his delay to lack of courage, fearful of offending the proponents of the pardon or those opposed to this move of executive clemency.

We have before us as we write this article a letter from Ben F. Lamborn, brother of the Lamborn killed in the preparedness day parade in San Francisco. He urges us to oppose with all our might the "lies, and the grossest misstatements being sent broadcast all with the hope of securing pardons for the perpetrators of the Preparedness Day Bomb Outrage."

Naturally, Mr. Lamborn is bitter against the guilty, and he would not be human if he did not wish to see some one suffer for the death of his brother. And if he did not insist that the culprit's guilt be established beyond the peradventure of all doubt, it might be excused upon the deep personal feeling that surged through his heart at the thought of the brutal slaying of his kin—an innocent victim of a diabolic outrage.

He ends his letter by averring that a "pardon for Mooney means that "'Direct Action Anarchy' will prevail." Of course, it means nothing of the kind.

The crime was committed twelve years ago, almost thirteen years ago. The political significance of the deed has passed. The pardon of Mooney, even though he might be guilty, could not have any encouraging effect upon anarchy. That might have been true if he had received a pardon when the crime was still fresh in the minds of radicals.

On the other hand, we have read with interest a speech by Gerald P. Nye, of North Dakota, in the Senate of the United States, pleading for "Justice for Mooney."

It covered the subject in an exhaustive manner, presenting documentary evidence to prove that Mooney was convicted by perjury, and was the victim of hate by industrial units which knew him as a trouble-maker among the employees of its enterprises, and feared him because of his hold upon labor.

A peculiar angle of the case is the fact that the judge that sentenced Mooney to hang, now, and for years has been laboring to secure for him first a new trial and later a pardon. The jurors—those still living add to the pleas of the judge theirs for executive clemency.

President Wilson urged the then Governor Stevenson to stay the execution of the sentence, believing that there was serious doubt as to the guilt of Mooney. He was sentenced to hang. The governor, though he did so ungraciously, commuted the sentence to life imprisonment.

After reading this document we turned again to the other side of the question and read carefully a statement by Charles M. Fickert, at one time district attorney of San Francisco, we assume at the time of the Mooney affair. He is bitter against the labor leader, and assails the judge that tried him—Griffin—as being partial to the accused, Mooney and his partner, Billings. We cannot quite connect up this partiality in view of the fact that the judge sentenced one of the men to die.

Fickert also assails Fremont Older as an I. W. W. and anarchist. Older is a progressive thinker, but not an anarchist. Fickert weakens his case by being immoderate in his attack upon a man whose reputation is beyond reproach.

** * **

Summed up from every angle, the writer if he were governor of this state, would pardon Mooney. Pardon him not because we were sure he was innocent, but pardon him because there is at least a chance that he has been a victim of circumstances and a sacrifice to a sentiment that was hot-headed against radical union labor. We would pardon him because he has served almost thirteen years of his life sentence. In a measure he has paid if guilty—paid to organized society for his

Investiture Ceremony Used For First Time In Niles

The Niles Troop of Scouts, at their initiation held last Friday, January 17th, in their clubhouse, put on an investiture ceremony. This is the first time that a Boy Scout investiture was put on by any troop in the Township. It was a very impressive ceremony, showing the meaning of the scout oath, and laws. Three large candles were used for the three points of the scout oath, and twelve smaller candles used for the twelve scout laws.

The ceremony began in complete darkness, the candidates were blindfolded, and brought in. The candles were then lighted, one at a time until they were all burning.

Scout Frank Ferry presented the candidates to the Scoutmaster, Marshall Green, who confirmed them in the degree and presented them with a tenderfoot badge.

Those initiated were, Gordon Justus, Harry Wilcox, Claude Marchand, John McGowan, Vernon Ellsworth, Clarence Rose, and Frank Rose.

Visitors were Mr. Nemith, scoutmaster of Newark, and Peter Decoto, scoutmaster of Decoto, with their respective troops.

The eats served were sandwiches, cake and chocolate.

Short speeches were then made by the scoutmasters and the committeemen, after which the meeting was adjourned in scout style.

The Niles troop is contemplating many things, one of which is a trip to Napa county. This will be a two day trip, with only a small number of scouts going. These scouts will be picked by Committeeman Townsend, and Scoutmaster Green. The date set for this trip is February 22 and 23, according to the scoutmaster.

Visitors are welcome any Friday night at 7 p. m. Parents of the Scouts are especially invited.

The Scouts will soon have their radio installed, which was donated to them by Blacow and Sullivan's Radio Shop.

CENSUS QUESTIONS ENUMERATED TO PREPARE PEOPLE

United States Census To Be Taken This Year

Pre-census taking advice is: "Don't be sassy to the enumerator." The man who goes around with the forms is an agent of Uncle Sam whom once in ten years gets decidedly curious. The answers are not to be published before the world.

A way to aid the census taker is to study the questions in advance, that the replies may be ready. Perhaps you do not know in which states your parents were born or how to check off some of the others in the two dozen requests for information. That the public may assist, and may not be surprised when the enumerator displays his curiosity, the questions are here appended:

1. Relationship to head of family, including a statement as to the home maker in each family.
3. Whether home is owned or rented.
3. Value of home, if owned, or monthly rental if rented.
4. Radio set?
5. Does this family live on a farm?
6. Sex.
7. Color or race.
8. Age at last birthday.
9. Marital condition.
10. Age at first marriage. (For married persons only.)
11. Attended school or college any time since Sept. 1. 1929.
12. Whether able to read or write?
13. Place of birth of person (State or Country.)
14. Place of birth of person's father, (State or country.)
15. Place of birth of persons' mother. (State or Country.)
16. Mother tongue of each foreign born person.
17. Year of immigration to the United States. (For foreign born only.)
18. Whether naturalized. (For foreign born only.)
19. Whether able to speak English. (For foreign born only.)
20. Occupation of each gainful worker.
21. Industry in which employed.
22. Whether employer, employee, or working on own account.
23. Whether actually at work. (For each person usually employed but returned as not at work, additional information will be secured on a special unemployment schedule.)
24. Whether a veteran of the United States military or naval forces and for each veteran, in what war or expedition he served.

STATE TO KEEP MOUNTAIN ROADS OPEN VERY LATE

With the arrival of seasonal rains and snow in the high Sierra California's highways are speedily being put into shape for winter travel.

This year will probably mark the longest period of trans-Sierra automobile travel in history, according to B. B. Meek, director of public works.

"In general, the policy of the highway division," said Meek, "can be stated as follows: Roads will be kept open as late in the winter and as early in the spring as it is practical to do with the equipment available, but no guarantee will be given that roads will be kept open throughout the whole winter."

Equipment has already been assembled for snow removal on sections of mountain roads. On sections where heavy slides are anticipated, such as the Redwood highway, the slopes are being carefully graded down.

NAPOLEON WILLOW GROWS IN GARDENS OF THIS TOWNSHIP

Once again we hear of an interesting story about our township. Last Friday the Register reporter had the pleasure of reading a most interesting letter written to Mrs. James R. Whipple by one of her friends.

Inclosed in this letter was an account of the "Mount Vernon Willows,', written by Charles H. Shinn, many years ago. He was the editor of the Overland Monthly and was well known as a writer. Mr. Shinn was the eldest brother of Joseph Shinn, who is now a resident of Niles.

MOUNT VERNON WILLOWS

Everything on earth has its own story to tell; but generally we miss the main point of it, but in this one, the thing seems to me very plain.

There is a cut leaf willow, weeping willow, and all nurserymen have it they sell the plain, undegreed kind, for they have no others, and probably have paid no attention to the truthful history which you are about to hear. Some of them call it the James Lick willow, because that old Californian planted it extensively around Lick's Mills, Santa Clara County and elsewhere.

But here is the story of the best branch of the "curly willow" family. Some one planted one of these trees by the grave of Napoleon Bonaparte at St. Helena. It is said to still be growing there. The body of the great Frenchman was taken back to France, as we all know. Admirers of Napoleon sent cuttings to their friends everywhere, and some were sent to Mt. Vernon.

The late E. L. Beard, of Mission San Jose, one of California's most original and broadest guaged pioneers, got cuttings from Mt. Vernon. They are now magnificent trees, well worth going to see.

Mr. Beard gave cuttings of the pedigreed tree to his friends; and trees from this one are now growing in San Jose, Palo Alto, Mountain View, Centerville, Niles, Hayward, and many other places.

The true point of this narrative of the curly willow is right here, observe how it escaped from militarism, and Napoleonic tradition, as the centuries passed. Wars have come and gone, but the "Napoleon Willow" gives to many an American landscape just that serene, mellowed, thought serious touch that every home-garden somehow needs.

Martin Crane, mail delivery man, has asked that something be done to repair the road in front of the rural mail boxes. At present it is difficult to drive up to them on account of the mud. A. George, roadmaster, will take charge of the graveling and improving of the road on route 1, near Decoto.

Surplus Waters To Be Drained Into Deep Well

Centerville Streets Will Benefit Under The New Plan

Sinking of a deep well in Centerville to take care of the surplus water which floods several streets there, was reported favorably upon at the monthly meeting of the the county surveyor's office employees, and the county roadmasters, held in the Florence restaurant Saturday.

This well has been long considered and until last week's meeting the project was more or less in an unsettled state, it was intimated that no time would be lost after the necessary plans had been approved.

A survey of the garbage disposal situation in Alameda county was ordered of the roadmasters by County Engineer George Posey. It has been reported that many persons are using the highways as a disposal plant for the garbage. This is unlawful it was pointed out, and citations are to be issued to offenders.

In ordering the survey, Posey informed the roadmasters to be especially watchful for central points where garbage dumps would be available. Southern Alameda county is fairly free of persons using the highways for a dump for the refuse, however, the roadmasters of this district will aid in the plan.

Cutting of the highways in and around Alameda by trucks hauling gas pipes was reported to the engineer. Mr. Posey promised to take the matter up with the traffic department, and order arrest of truckers if they are found to be carrying over-weight loads.

As guests of the road masters were Supervisor Ralph Richmond, Deputy Sheriff L. E. Van Patten and Dave Hope, newspaper man, both of Livermore, and Judge Wm. T. Davis of Pleasanton.

Roadmasters of Pleasanton district in attendance were R. F. Blacow, of Pleasanton, and Arthur Day, of Sunol.

Word has been received from Reverend Arthur Seebart of Columbus, Montana, that he is delighted with his new charge in that city. He sends his best regards to all his friends in this community. He was the pastor of the Niles Congregational Church for three years.

The pine-covered scarp along the river and the beautiful Beartooth Mountains in the background were most picturesque. Thus far it has not been cold enough in this locality to freeze the river. Other parts of the state have been less fortunate. We are in love with the country, and are liking the people more and more.

"A happy new year to any of the friends who may enquire about us."

AUTO INDUSTRY HIRES 12,000 MEN IN ALAMEDA CO.

Ford and Chrysler To Build Plants In Bay District

Nearly 12,000 men earning approximately $18,000,000 annually manufacturing $190,000,002 worth of products each year is the picture of Alameda County's automotive industry drawn by Supervisor Ralph V. Richmond.

"Already we are the "Detroit of the West", said Richmond. "With nearly 6,000 men employed in automotive trades within the Alameda County area, a property investment of about $12,000,000, a payroll of $8,500,00 annually and production of $101,375,000 each year, who can dispute the fact.

Completion of the proposed Chrysler factory and assembly plant as well as the establishment of the C. W. Will Motor Company adjoining the Durant Motor Company plant in San Leandro will nearly double these figures, Supervisor Richmond pointed out.

Chysler bought a site at East Fourteenth Street and Durant Avenue, directly opposite the Durant Motor Company plant a year ago and is expected to announce construction plans for the great factory in the immediate future. The site has a frontage of 1,400 feet on East Fourteenth Street and depth of 2,000 feet, while it has spur track connections with both the Southern Pacific and Western Pacific railroads. On it, according to Supervisor Richmond, Chrysler wil build a plant employing approximately 3,000 men and with an output valued at $50,000,000 annually.

While the Ford plant at Richmond is not located in Alameda County, nevertheless it is in the district, being located on the concontinental side of San Francisco Bay, and only a short distance from Oakland. Ford owns 70 acres at Richmond. This has been provided with deep water and rail transportation, street, sewer and power connections, as well as other improvements at a cost of $400,000. On it he proposes to erect a $5,000,000 plant and definite announcement of ground breaking is expected about January 1.

No definite details of the Ford project have been revealed but Richmond authorities declared the plant probably will offer employment to at least 2,500 men with a payroll of aproximately $4,000,000 annually.

SAFETY COUNCIL STRESSES NEED OF GOOD BRAKES

This month the safety conference of the California State Chamber of Commerce stresses the fact that caution should be used when pedestrians are crossing the street. One should be alert, ready at a moment's notice to help oneself or some other person out of danger. Don't you think it is better to prevent accident than have to be constantly ready to avoid them?

Every one is asked to assist in this life-saving campaign, and during the month of January the need of good brakes is emphasized. "Ignorance of the law is no excuse," states Chief Snook, "it is against the law to operate a motor vehicle without proper brake efficiency."

An excellent way to test the brakes on a car is to throw out the clutch, and apply the brakes and note the distance traveled before the car comes to a complete stop.

Statistics show that over 60 per cent of the accidents due to motor traffic are caused by faulty brakes, and the majority of these accidents could have been avoided if the brakes had been mantained in proper condition.

Mrs. J. R. Whipple, of Thane's Corner, is the chairman of the Washington Township division of the California State Chamber of Commerce Safety Council.

MORE ON Removal Of Grades

Sunol and Farwell; seperation of grade over the same railroad at Farwell, widening of the highway at spots in the canyon which are unusually narrow; and the replacing of the Hord bridge with one of steel and concrete.

Twenty-five thousand dollars has been allotted for the removal of the grade crossings; $20,000 for road widening purposes; $50,000 for the grade separation at Farwell; and $110,000 for the construction of the new bridge.

Financing of these projects will come from Alameda county's share of the state gasoline tax fund, it was stated by George Posey, county suveyor.

Credit for procuring so large a sum for the southern end of Alameda county highways must be given to Supervisor Ralph Richmond of Niles. Mr. Richmond was elected upon his platform of procuring a proper share of the tax monies for his section of the county, and to date he has lived up to his platform.

The beautifying and improving of the Niles canyon district has been one of Supervisor Richmond's principel aims. During the past year, his first as a supervisor, he has procured two new bridges in the canyon and the widening of the highway in several places.

Other projects contemplated in southern Alameda county will include the widening of the highway between San Lorenzo junction and Warm Springs into a four-lane thoroughfare; construction of the Crandall slough; and the replacement of several trestles between Centerville and Alvarado.

In the Oakland and Alameda section of the county, the improvements will include the replacement of the Park street bridge in Oakland over the Oakland-Alameda estuary; a low-level tunnel through the Contra Costa hills; repairing the Fruitvale bridge; reconditioning the Bay Farm Island bridge; widening E. 14th street between San Leandro and Hayward; extension of the Redwood Creek canyon road into Castro valley; and the extension of the Skyline boulevard from the Berkeley city limits to the Grizzley peak fire station.

Work on these projects will begin at an indefinite date according to the announcement; as plans have not been completed on several of the projects, and after they have been completed still more time must elapse before bids may be received and the contracts awarded.

METATARSAL ARCH CAUSE OF MANY FOOT TROUBLES

Proper Exercise Would Give Relief From Pain in Great Degree

Too many times a person suffering from foot troubles thinks of only one arch, and thereby overlooks what in all probability is causing the pain, according to H. L. Scott.

Mr. Scott in the following article describes the metatarsal arch, which is the cause of so much foot aches, and advises special exercise and regular walks as a remedy. Mr. Scott continued:

"The average person thinking of arch trouble naturally thinks of one arch only — the one running from the inner border of the heel to the ball of the great toe. However, the most common form of all foot trouble, and the most painful, is the falling of the metatarsal arch — the arch across the ball of the foot.

"An infallible sign of the metatarsal condition is the worn shoe tip, the upper is spread across the ball and the sole is worn at the middle of the ball.

In a metatarsal condition the two forward bearing points have ceased to be of service. Hence the peculiar worn condition of the shoe. As soon as this arch drops the toes are drawn back and contract until the toe is forced out of shape. It is almost impossible to fit a foot of this type correctly in any shoe built over a standard last.

"Owing to the abnormal amount of pressure brought to bear directly at the ball of the foot, callouses are formed and soft corns develop between the toes. More serious foot troubles such as swollen feet, cramps, foot burn, and rheumatism. Like pains in other parts of the body are frequently the result of a bad metatarsal condition. Nature has provided the metatarsal arch also to protect blood vessels and nerves at the ball of the foot.

"The arch, when it falls, squeezes the blood vessels beneath it causing congestion of the blood flow and produces swollen feet; it presses the nerves at the ball of the foot and may cause pain in other parts of the body through reflex action. Headaches, backaches, pain in the back of the head are often the result of metatarsal trouble.

"Bad feet can be corrected but shoes alone cannot correct them. Support that is adjustable to the individual foot is the only sure method of holding the bone structure in its normal position. The very best way to care for the feet is to correct minor troubles before they become major troubles. Have podogram [illegible] of your feet regularly to find out if anything is wrong with them. Take special exercises if neces-

Sewage Disposal System Rapped By Health Officer

Favorable Comment Given Water Works On Other Hand

Sewage disposal in Pleasanton is described as the city's most urgent civic problem in a survey of the sewage and water systems in Pleasanton made by C. S. Gillespie, chief of the sanitation department of the California State Board of Health.

The report states that the sewage disposal is out of date and that "how well" the plans of the new sewer farm which included the purchase of an additional five acres of land, grading and checking of the farm and the replacing of old ditches with a good wooden flume, "will succeed, is to be demonstrated."

Continuing he states: "I believe the town should look on its sewage disposal as its foremost unsolved civic problem, to be worked out industrially."

On the other hand Mr. Gillespie gave credit where credit was due, declaring: "Pleasanton has had public sewers since 1910. They are well designed and constructed. The connections are complete This is quite a noteworthy accomplishment for which all the officials of the community should be proud."

In connection with the water supply of the community the health engineer commented that Pleasanton's wells bear a good reputation for non-contamination and that analyses are satisfactory "There is an unimportant avenue of puddle pollution of all the active wells which needs remedy.

The construction impresses one as workmanlike and along conservative lines."

DIRIGIBLE BASE AT SUNNYVALE IS FAVORED

Arthur M. Brown, representing the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce, has recently returned from a trip made to Washington in regard to this important matter. He brought back an encouraging report on the possibility of favarable action by congress on the Sunnyvale site.

"The real struggle has only just begun," Brown said. "The most gratifying part of the whole situation is the splendid way in which the Northern California Congressmen are united in favor of the Sunnyvale site.

"Headed by Congressman Arthur Free, of San Jose, the congressional group from Northern and Central California, Congressman Clarence Lea, Richard J. Welch, Curry Englebright, Carter and Congresswoman Florence Prag Kahn, are strongly banded together in a determined effort to bring the navy Dirigible base to Northern California. With such powerful allies our cause is by no means a forlorn hope.

Brown urged that people of Northern California let their representatives in congress know that their efforts to locate the dirigible base at Sunnyvale are appreciated. Letters or telegrams to the congressmen encouraging them to keep up the fight are an effective means all interested persons may take of aiding the fight for Sunnyvale, he said.

NEW OFFICERS ARE TENDERED BANQUET BY EASTERN STAR

Incoming officers of the Pleasanton Chapter of Eastern Star were honored with a banquet at the regular meeting recently. The new officers were installed at a previous session, but this was the first regular meeting over which they presided.

The attendance was very good despite the inclement weather. Fifty members were present.

The committe in charge of the refreshments was composed of Mrs. W. A. Fothergill, chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Robin Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cope, Mrs. Mura Davis, and Mrs. Davis' mother Mrs. L. M. Heise of Redwood City.

The members enjoyed a social hour playing cards after the business session.

will supplement existing sub-station facilities of the Eastbay. The middle of the summer is expected to mark the completion of construction and installation of auxiliary transmission and distribution lines.

The Hayward station will handle service for a large Eastbay territory in East Oakland, San Leandro and this community, now supplied from the Oakland unit. Addition of the distributing center to the present power system will result in many service advantages by increasing the flexibility of the entire Eastbay system, according to officials.

A new double-circuit 100,000 volt steel tower line, to be laid from a switching station in the Moraga valley, will supply power for the Hayward substation. The line will be an extension of the 100,000-volt transmission line from a hydro generating plant along the Feather river in Plumas county.

crime. If in fact guilty, death is not far off—he is no longer young—and to God he will have to answer, also.

So, we think, Young could not affront constitutional government—could not outrage society by granting freedom to Mooney.

It would be a big thing to do—a charitable thing to do, and efface from the escutcheon of this state the possible circumstance that a man has been put in jail and kept there because of radical proclivities. It would disarm a certain type of agitator who capitalizes on what he terms a great injustice to Mooney—an agent of organized labor—offering him an inflammable fuel to fan the fires of class hatreds—hatreds that in time, if left unchecked, may rock the very foundations of representative government.

GRADE CROSSING ACCIDENTS HIGH IN THIS COUNTY

Average Ratio for State Is 17.7 per 100 Crossings

Alameda county led all other counties in the state in the number of accidents per 100 grade crossings during 1928, according to statistics made public this week by the Transportation Division of the Engineering Department of the Railroad Commission There were 562 accidents at grade crossings in the county, which while not the largest number, was the largest in proportion to the total number of crossings.

Los Angeles county had the largest number of such accidents, 116 in all, but having many more crossings than Alameda county, the percentage was considerable less.

Figuring per 100 crossings, Alameda county had 48.9 accidents and Los Angeles county 231. There are 1149 crossings in Alameda county and 2924 in Los Angeles county.

Humbolt county showed the lowest ratio of accidents reported with 1.2 accidents per 100 crossings. Several counties reported no accidents, but there were no common carriers in those counties with grade crossings involved, so these counties were not figures in the record of the Transportation Division.

Those counties having twenty or more accidents per 100 crossings were:

Marin 28.6; San Francisco, 24.4 and Santa Clara 21.5.

There are 12,311 grade crossings in the state at which 2,179 accidents occurred during 1928. This made an average of 17.7 accidents per hundred crossings for the year.

Several of the townspeople have also sent in complaints concerning two men who have been snooping and peeking around their homes during the night. Night Watchman Roderick asks that any one else who is annoyed in a similar fashion will please report it to him, for he is making an attempt to stop this practice.
